Our efficiency depends so much ~~on~~<sup>out</sup> our ~~Efficiency~~ <sup>Concentration</sup>. that Nature usually in the melancholy where a marked man is sent into the world, overload, him with bias, sacrificing his symmetry to his working power -

It is said no man can write but one book and if a man have a defect it is apt to leave its impression on all his performances

But worse than the harking on one thing: Nature has secured individualism by giving the private person<sup>281</sup> a high concept of his weight in the system
